One Big Fact Not Advertised

is the 2½ grains of a harmful drug in the average cup of coffee.

Coffee roasters know that there is caffeine, a subtle, poisonous drug in coffee. But they doge the issue and talk about flavour. Proof lies in the fact that some coffee concerns have tried, without success, to rid coffee of its caffeine.

Daily blows of this coffee-drug finally result for most people, in nervousness, headache, heart flutter or some other form of caffeine poisoning.

You may not think coffee hurts you, but to be sure, quit coffee ten days and use the pure food-drink—

POSTUM

It is made of wheat and a bit of wholesome molasses. The tasty, Java-like flavour makes the change easy as well as beneficial—and there's no drug or other harmful element in Postum.

There are two forms of Postum: Postum Cereal—the original form—must be boiled—15c and 25c pkgs. Instant Postum—the soluble form—is made in the cup with hot water, instantly—30c and 50c tins. The cost per cup is about the same for both kinds.

Secretary and Treasurer.

REUNION OF THE EIGHTEENTH

The Veterans Had a Fine Gathering at the Buckingham Memorial on Wednesday and Talked Over Old Days—William Caruthers Relected President of Regimental Association—Many Have Passed to Great Beyond During the Year.

It was just fifty-three years ago Wednesday that the 18th regiment, Connecticut Volunteers were mustered into the service of the Union army, at the fairgrounds, East Great Plain, and some seventy members of the regiment representing ten companies gathered yesterday at Buckingham Memorial for their annual reunion. The weather was delightfully cool and there was much to take up the time of the veterans who always look forward to these yearly gatherings. All the old soldiers wore badges consisting of a shield with a picture of the capitol at Washington, with red, white and blue streamers underneath. On the streamers were the words, 47th annual reunion of the 18th Connecticut Regimental Association, Norwich, Connecticut, August 18th. A number of the vets were accompanied by their wives and sons and it was a day of a general renewal of acquaintances for all.

Business Meeting.

President William Caruthers called the business meeting to order and in brief remarks welcomed all to the reunion.

Secretary and Treasurer Henry Hovey then announced that owing to the fact that President Caruthers is not in the best of health he would conduct the remainder of the meeting. An earnest prayer was offered by Comrade A. C. Green of Danielson. As Treasurer Mr. Hovey stated that there was a balance of $260.40 in the treasury last year. The year's income amounted to $53.61 and the expenses were $42.18. The sum of $22 was received from Captain J. H. Morrison, and $3 from Mrs. Button whose husband died at the reunion three years ago. These figures increased the balance on hand to $275.83.

President Caruthers Relected.

The old officers were reelected upon motion of Captain J. E. Woodward and the list follows:

President—William Caruthers of Norwich.

Vice President—Company A, John Service of Norwich; Company B, Caleb Blanchard of Killingly; Company D, Silas B. Gifford of Worcester; Company F, W. L. Davies of New London; Company H, James Haggerty of Williamantic.

Charles F. Geer of this city was chosen as assistant to Mr. Hovey for the coming year. A collection was taken by James McKee and the amount totaled $15.94. This was raised $1 by Dr. Smith of Mystic, son of Joseph Smith of Westbury, of Company G, as he said he didn't like the sound of thirteen.

Interesting Letters Read.

A number of interesting letters were read by Mr. Hovey. George W. Loomis, a Norwich boy, now in Dallas, Tex., sent $5 to the association. He stated in his letter that he would be unable to be with the boys as he was going with his family to mineral wells. Mr. Loomis regretted that Secretary Hovey was not able to stay longer in Dallas when he and George C. Green were on their recent tour to California. According to Mr. Loomis the temperature is hot in Texas at present and the cotton and corn crops promise well.

Another letter read was that received from James W. Loomis of Fair Haven, N. J. Mr. Loomis stated that he was such that he was unable to attend the reunion this year but he is going to make an effort to be among those present next year.

C. H. Ellsworth of Rochester, who also sent a letter stated that his health kept him away this year.

Sends Blessing From Iowa.

Sending his blessing to the boys of the 18th, Joel Carey of Company C, 80 years of age and residing in Red Oak, Iowa, wrote that he was unable to make the long trip east to attend the reunion.

Although it would have been a great pleasure Comrade C. F. Keables wrote from Indianapolis, Ind., that he could not attend. He is now 75 years old and is enjoying good health.

Letter From the Coast.

Referring to his meeting Comrade Hovey during Mr. Hovey's recent western trip. The W. Martin of Los Angeles regretted that Mr. Hovey was unable to remain with him longer. Mr. Martin vividly remembers the scenes of half a century ago. He resided in Norwich for a good part of his life.

Bound to the Hoosier Soil.

A highly interesting letter was that received from J. H. Sawyer of the Indiana State Soldiers' home at Lafayette. Mr. Sawyer said he would have liked to be present with his comrades but that fate binds him to the Hoosier soil. He said he often thinks of the way the soldiers pictured their home coming fifty years ago and of the way they expected to be received by the people of Norwich on their arrival here. Instead all were paid off in Hartford and as soon as each man got his pay he made for the railroad station without time to shake hands with his comrades. Mr. Sawyer's name was near the end of the list and like the rest, as soon as he got his pay, he left without ceremony for the railroad depot.

Mr. Sawyer went on his wedding trip in 1869 and sailed from New London on the City of Boston which was the same vessel that transported the 18th to New York three years previous. Mr. Sawyer spoke of meeting General Ely in Brooklyn in 1888. Previously he saw one of the ferryboats used in Virginia during the war, plying about New York harbor. He wrote that the battlefield of Tippecanoe lies but a short distance from his home. The land, covering ten acres, is owned by the state. There is a monument on the battlefield and stones mark the separate graves. A number of old cannon still remain on the field. The battle was fought Nov. 5, 1811 and Mr. Sawyer tells of the dedication of the field in 1911. Mr. Sawyer went to the front with the regiment under Captain Thomas K. Bates. He enlisted from Woodstock.

Will Use Eighth Corps Badges. It was voted to use the 8th army corps badge at reunions hereafter, upon motion of Comrade Babson. This badge is in the shape of a six pointed star surmounted by an eagle. Charles H. Lynch of Hartford said he would give the association a cut of the badge. Mr. Lynch has been an engineer in the plant of a big printing house in Hartford for the past 50 years. He takes much interest in the G. A. R.

Cigars from Ex-Mayor Osgood. Secretary Hovey announced that 100 good cigars had been presented the reunion by Former Mayor F. L. Osgood, repeating his gift of last year. A vote of thanks was passed in recognition of Mr. Osgood's kindness.

Deaths Since Last Reunion.

The list of deaths received since the last reunion was read as follows by Secretary Hovey: Ralph W. Earle, Co. F, Jan. 23, 1914; Henry Robinson, Co. G, July 4, 1914; William A. Trask, Co. B, April 24, 1914; Henry C. Torrey, Co. D, Aug. 23, 1914; Martin Crusan, Co. B, Aug. 28, 1914; John D. Wells, Co. G, Sept. 15, 1914; Benjamin P. Weeks, Co. B, Sept. 27, 1914; George C. Satchell, Co. A, Oct. 8, 1914; Miner A. Robbins, Co. I, Oct. 30, 1914; Henry Frink, Co. I, Nov. 30, 1914; Lucian A. Taylor, Co. F, November, 1914; George W. Warner, Co. G, Nov. 24, 1914; Daniel A. Botham, Co. F, Dec. 19, 1914; Joseph O. Lathrop, Co. I, Jan. 16, 1915; Rensselaer Coomes, Co. B, March 18, 1915; William H. Boyden, Co. H, March 21, 1915; Andrew Washburn, Co. C, April 20, 1915; Charles Robinson, Co. C, June 23, 1915; William H. Buckingham, Co. H, July 8, 1915; Asa F. Wood, Co. A, July 10, 1915; George E. Comins, Co. C, June 16, 1915; Charles S. Miller, Co. I, May 21, 1915; Gilbert Letcher, Co. G, May 23, 1915; Harris, Co. B, July 24; William Goodell, Co. K, July 29; George H. Burroughs, Co. B, March, 1915; James H. Griggs, Co. D; Joseph Kenworthy, Co. H.

Relief Corps Served Fine Dinner.

After the business had been cleared up, upon motion of Mr. Hovey, adjournment was taken and there was a brief social time before dinner was served by the ladies of the Relief corps. A large basket of handsome flowers, the gift of Miss Hannah L. Ripley of this city, occupied a place at the head of the table. Blessing was asked by Comrade Green. McCord's orchestra furnished music during the dinner and the Washburn Show band and steam piano rendered popular airs in front of the Memorial. A vote of thanks was tendered Miss Ripley for her floral gift.

Those Who Registered.

The comrades present were as follows:

Company A—A. G. Greene, John H. Tefft, John Phinney, Robert Kehr, S. F. Gibson, John Service, Horace U. Sherman, Peter Campbell.

Company B—Caleb Blanchard, Henry K. Gould, Calvin H. Richmond, Samuel Armstrong, D. D. Danielson, Hugh McLaughlin.

Company C—Orlando Lombard, Edwin White, L. A. Manning, Charles H. Lynch, William A. Wetmore, Gilbert B. Burdick, Henry T. Clark, Charles F. Geer, James H. Avery, Henry Ormsby, Benjamin B. Brown.

Company D—William Gould, Frank Converse, T. J. Leonard, Omar Coman, Nathan Chase, George Young.

Company E—James McKee, Horace Fox, George Kelgwin, William C. Tracy, George Paulson, Marvin Tourtellotte, Samuel Reynolds.

Company F—Capt. John E. Woodward, George W. Blake, Roswell Butler, William L. Drexler, Timothy Sullivan, Russell M. Brown.

Company G—Peter Geroux, Joseph Smith, Charles Burrows, Lowell Wilcox, Walter T. Fox, Frederick W. Redhead.

Company H—William Caruthers, Thomas D. Spencer, William Dean, James Haggerty.

Company I—Harvey L. Muzzey, Edwin Spalding, Capt. J. H. Morrison, James Tucker, Andrew Dean, Capt. S. R. Knapp, Palmer Green, James Bigelow.

Company K—H. W. Babson, R. R. James, W. H. H. Leavens, Thomas T. Bates, Maxey Young, D. P. Jordan, Prosper Kelley, an associate member.

The casualties of the regiment in the war were as follows: Killed in battle 58, wounded 246, died of wounds while prisoners 12, died of disease while prisoners 27, died of wounds and disease 50, discharged prior to mustering out 323, missing at mustering out 12.

Back from California.

In addition to the list above, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kerr were present. They have just returned to Springfield, their old home, after passing five years in California. Mr. Kerr is a former president of the association and a Greenville boy. Captain J. E. Woodward of New London, formerly of Norwich, was warmly greeted by his comrades. James Haggerty of Williamantic, jovial and popular with the vets, was among the youngest appearing of the old soldiers. Charles H. Lynch of Hartford displays a sutler's check that was used as money at the front. It proved very interesting and served as the signal for story telling.

To Secretary Hovey is due much of the credit for the success of the reunion.
